

Ricky W. Doub Memorial Scholarship

Scholarship Background

Ricky Doub was dedicated to protect life and property within Forbush Fire District for almost 30 years. While a member of Forbush Fire Department, he served in positions of firefighter to Fire Chief. He was also instrumental in establishing a medical first responder program for Forbush Fire District and served as a medical first responder. Ricky Doub died in the line of duty in December 2014. The Board of Directors, Officers, and members of Forbush Fire Department established a memorial scholarship in memory of Ricky's dedication to Forbush Fire District and Fire Department. The funds for memorial scholarship will be secured through a private account separate from Forbush Fire Department operating expenses. These funds will be accrued by donations and fundraising events.
